

Naples American High School

Course Syllabus

Course Name:	Italian V	Course Description DoDEA Course Description Web Site
Textbook:	L'altra biblioteca
Teacher Name:	Ms. P.
Phone Number:	629-4512
Planning Periods:	3
Location:	Room 207

Philosophy

Upon completion of the Year V course, students should be able to speak in the target language with increased ease, fluency, and accuracy, analyze and report on media presentations, social and political issues, and literary selections, initiate and participate in casual and formal conversations related to current events and routine situations, respond coherently and spontaneously to prompts and unexpected situations, discuss solutions to a variety of situations, apply grammatical conventions in complex exercises.

Material

Textbook, Workbook, cassette tapes, cd, overhead projector, transparencies, supplementary materials, movies in Italian with English subtitles, realia.

Grading Policy

A	90-100
B	80-89
C	70-79
D	60-69
F	59 or below

Assessment

Notebooks are graded every semester and must show evidence of note-taking habits, exercises in class, dialogues in pairs. Tests, homework, and dialogues.

Homework

Homework is posted in the class board daily; it is also updated daily on www.yourhomework.com

Late Work Policy

Late work is accepted if the student was absent.

Tutoring/Extra Help

During seminar or after school, on request.

Classroom Management

1. Bring all material to class
2. Be in your seat and ready to work when the bell rings.
3. Treat fellow students and teacher with respect.
4. Follow all rules and regulations in the school student handbook.

Discipline Policy

1. First offense: WARNING
2. Second offense: TEACHER-STUDENT CONFERENCE
3. Third offense: DETENTION
4. Fourth offense: MEETING W/TEACHER, STUDENT, PARENTS, AND/OR ADMINISTRATION

Content Outline

GRADING CRITERIA:

Individual work/tests	50%
Projects and Researches	35%
Participation (help with other classes and extra-program projects)	15%

Additional Information

Standards

DoDEA Curricular Standards Web Site